

These are the much-awaited memoirs of a Colossus of the Ghanaian educational scene. His first-hand account of his experiences, recollections and insights into Ghanaian life are like gold dust. It is hoped that a wide spectrum of the Ghanaian public will read and enjoy this book. It is commended also to an even wider readership, beyond the shores of Ghana.

His Lordship Justice Samuel Kofi Date-Bah
Chairman of the University of Ghana Council